GLOBAL ID Summit

Dear Colleague,

The Global ID Summit scheduled for September 17th-19, 2018 in New York City will bring together 150+ individuals ranging from Directors of Security Agencies, Directors of Operations, Directors of IT, Heads of Acquisition, Chiefs, Directors of Policy, Biometric Program Managers, Elected Officials, Ministries of Interior, Industry Executives and Academia from across the globe to discuss the challenges at the forefront of national and global security operations, policy and procurements. Key themes running throughout the summit will be on the latest identity advancements in:

- Counterterrorism and security watch listing
- Automated screening and multimodal systems for transportation and border management
- GDPR and how that is going to impact information sharing
- Program management policy and architectural challenges
- Cloud and enterprise platforms to enhance interoperability, efficiencies and data exchange
- Mobile biometrics in the field operations
- Machine learning and behavioral biometrics to support counterterrorism and screening facilitation efforts
- Information sharing between state, local and federal agencies and international coalitions

The summit will provide attendees the opportunity to learn, share and connect with thought leaders to discuss priorities, the latest budget highlights and investments and considerations being made to integrate biometrics and identity platforms to keep our nations safe. With interactive discussion groups and panels the learning and engagement opportunities are limitless, every attendee is considered an integral part of information-sharing between government and industry regarding agency strategies, requirements and future acquisitions.

We look forward to welcoming you to the community's conference to support international identity management and biometrics advancements in enhancing security.

See you there!
