EXPLORE KEY THEMES AT THIS YEAR'S SSOW ASIA 2025:

DECODING THE FUTURE OF GBS: CAPTIVE, HYBRID, GCC, OR REGIONAL MODELS?

Asia is at the forefront of reshaping GBS delivery. Data indicates strong regional alignment with the GBS model, with 90% of respondents committed to it as their primary service construct.

ENABLING GBS TRANSFORMATION: FINANCE, PROCESS EXCELLENCE, AND HR INTEGRATION

Across Asia, transformation is deeply embedded into GBS design.

Only 14% of respondents rate their current maturity as low, while 31% place themselves at high or expert levels, factoring in sourcing, scope, digital, and talent alignment.

ACCELERATING THE ADOPTION OF AI AND AUTOMATION

A quarter of respondents are at the planning or proof of concept state of IA;

30% have implemented IA for less than three years; and 42% are at advanced stages (scaled, digitizing data, and deploying advanced cognitive capabilities).

TRANSITIONING FROM COST-CENTRIC TO REVENUE-ENABLING SHARED SERVICES

89% of respondents continue to prioritize efficiency, but a rising number—over 50%—also cite business support and agility as strategic outcomes.

FUTURE-PROOFING TALENT AND WORKFORCE STRATEGIES

According to the SSON Research & Analytics' State of Industry Survey, top skills in demand include digital literacy (55%), problem-solving (53%), and communication (50%). Notably, 42% of leaders anticipate a need to build process automation skills and are investing in partnerships and certifications to close the gap.
