Celebrating 30 Years of Excellence in Shared Services & GBS

www.SharedServicesWeek.com

YOUR SHARED SERVICES COMMUNITY

To Our Shared Services Community,

Shared Services and GBS have been labeled as the backbone of enterprises - the invisible operators making processes run smoothly, streamlining technology, providing data and aligning priorities across the business, especially through uncertainty. In an age of advancement and change, SSOs must transform to be able to continue to deliver that stability now more than ever before.

For our 30th Year of SSOW we will be highlighting the Stability Through Constant Change that shared services organizations have always provided, recognizing how far we have come and discovering the leading efforts of those who are powering the future of SSOs and GBS.

How are you unlocking the potential of transformation in your SSO? Whether you are faced with the challenge of building the skills-based workforce of the future, embedding adoption into every step of technology journeys, proving ROI in an era of AI and automation, or maintaining trust through strong data governance – now is the time to find real answers. That's where SSOW 2026 comes in.

We are bringing you real world insights and strategies to help you transform ambition into execution. From case studies on Agentic AI in HR and finance, to frameworks for scaling process excellence, to workforce strategies that keep people at the center of change, you'll walk away with the tools you need to advance your organization immediately.

And for the many attendees who are just beginning their shared services journey, our Shared Services Fundamentals Program will once again provide a solid foundation to launch and scale with confidence.

Whether you're leading a mature global services organization or building one from the ground up, SSOW 2026 is your destination to solve today's challenges and anticipate tomorrow's opportunities.

SSOW isn't just a shared services conference. It's THE shared services conference.
